

FY 2019 Special Populations Overview

Southern Center for Food Safety Modernization Act Training

Colby Silvert & Amy Harder, Department of Agricultural Education and Communication
University of Florida

Table 1. Training Locations and Targeted Groups

City or County, State	Date	Training Type	No of Participants (n)	Special Population(s)
Huntsville, AL	1/11/19	PSA	23	African American Students
Theodore, AL	8/19/19	PSA	11	African American farmers; Beginner Farmers
Moultrie, GA	4/5/19	PSA	23	African American farmers
Mound Bayou, MS	3/13/19	PSA	9	Fruit and vegetable growers
San Juan, PR	3/13/19	PSA	25	Local food growers
Mayaguez, PR	4/3/19	PSA	42	Local food growers
Ponce, PR	4/29/19	PSA	19	Local food growers; FDA officials
Cayey, PR	5/1/19	PSA	26	Local food growers
Utua, PR	5/4/19	FSPCA	20	Coffee growers and “torrecfacto”
Mayaguez, PR	5/23/19	PSA	16	Agricultural Research Extension
Mayaguez, PR	6/6/19	PSA	35	Local food growers
San Juan, PR	6/14/19	PSA	15	Non-English and limited English proficiency speakers (Spanish)
Mayaguez, PR	8/13/19	PSA	25	Local food growers; Limited English proficiency speakers (Spanish)
Charleston, SC	3/21/19	PSA	27	African American farmers; Local food growers
Ethridge, TN	2/28/19	PSA	35	Plain clothes growers (such as Amish, Mennonite, or Hutterite)
Durham, NC	3/29/19	PSA	24	Society for St. Andrews
Clinton, NC	6/27/19	PSA	14	NC Research station personnel
Richmond, VA	1/11/19	PSA	30	Local food growers; Organic growers
Suffolk, VA	1/23/19	PSA	20	Beginning farmers
Fishersville, VA	3/13/19	PSA	30	Beginning farmers; Local food growers; Farms that sell to schools; Hospitals

Note. Local food growers defined as food producers who sell over 50% of their food within 275 miles of their farm or food facility.

Figure 1. Most Frequent Trainings for Special Populations

